Days of Summer Fun!

During the month of July, we will be continuing the fun with "Epiphany Reads." We will be reading two books: Mitch Albom's Have a Little Faith, and the C.S. Lewis classic, The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. Reading guides will be available for each of the books, and at the end of the month we will have discussion groups (Have a Little Faith) and a Movie night (Narnia). You decide which track you want to follow or, if you are a speed reader, do both! The Mitch Albom book tells the true story of the rabbi who asks Mitch to write and deliver his eulogy and also weaves in the story of a drug-dealer turned preacher who runs a homeless shelter in Mitch's hometown, Detroit. This is a great tie-in to our National Youth Gathering Trip which will be in Detroit, July 14-20. Books will be available at the church, or download them to your favorite device!

Also, don't forget to sign in each week for our friendly Summer Long Attendance Competition. A theological disclaimer: this in no way will make God love you more, however, you will get to know your fellow brothers and sisters in Christ better and will help build a stronger community here at Epiphany. If you are traveling, be sure to bring a bulletin from the church you attended to share. Extra points will be awarded for holiday weekends (July 5 and September 7). We will publically recognize the winners at the Rally Day Celebration in September.
