August 16, 2015
Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

We are reaching out to our community (locally) and beyond as we assemble hygiene kits for the homeless and put together Lutheran World Relief kits. We will also have a 5th Sunday Brunch on August 30th, so bring a friend to worship and let's actively do what we can to be the change!

And keep signing in at worship—it really does matter!

See you soon!

Attention all seniors! According to a recent Mayo Clinic study seniors who kept up with their arts and crafts pastimes were 73% less likely to develop thinking and memory problems that could lead to dementia. ALSO other research indicated that knitters with chronic pain may feel less discomfort while working with needles and yarn.

All wonderful reasons to start knitting for Threads of Love! Remember, you do not have to join either group, but we would love to have your company.

Today is your last chance to pick up your 2nd quarter financial statement. The box is on the Visitor Center by the sign-in.

Get yours before Kay Conrad hunts you down!

Pr. Laura will be out of the office Monday through Wednesday, August 17-19 at Camp Cheerio for the WFU Campus Ministry orientation for new students.

There are two additional hearing assistance devices at the Welcome Center. If you need one of these, please be sure to pick one up on your way into the service and return it when you are through.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES needed for the children of El Buen Pastor. Back-to-school time is a financial strain for low-income families. If we help with buying the basic school supplies, parents can spend their hard-earned money on school uniforms and new shoes. Kids will be especially grateful for supplies donated BEFORE school starts August 24, but donations are welcome through September. A detailed list is available online at www.elbuenpastorLCS.org.
