November 15, 2015
Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

The Call Committee has been interviewing candidates and has recommended a candidate to be interviewed by the Congregation Council. The next step is an interview with the Council, and if the Council approves the candidate, the congregation will be informed and will meet the candidate. After appropriate notification, there will be a called congregational meeting with a vote to approve calling the candidate. Please continue to keep the Call Committee in your prayers.

Pennies from Heaven

Please give generously to Samaritan Ministries through our penny campaign. The jar is on the table in the entry.

There is power in pennies:
$2.10 provides a meal for a homeless person.
