Top 5 Reasons ADULTS should sign up for VBS too...

5. You get to eat kid friendly food, without any embarrassment. (You know you secretly love a pudding cup.)
4. You have always thought of yourself as a crafter, but never had the outlet to explore if you could indeed be the next Martha Stewart.
3. You love being around kids, especially other people's kids.
2. Lew Saphar has graciously agreed to teach the adult bible study portion of VBS and nobody wants to disappoint Lew.
1. Because the children want you there!

This year's VBS is unique in that it is an intergenerational experience with kids from 3 years old to adults. Please support Epiphany's youth program by participating in VBS!

Adults will participate in the Opening with the kids, break into an adult Bible study (with the Barnyard theme), then do Crafts and Closing with the kids.

Just your presence will show our youth that Epiphany is there for them.

Even if you can't come all week, pick a day or two and participate!

VBS is Sunday, July 24 – Thursday, July 28 with a kid-friendly dinner at 5:30pm and VBS starting at 6pm.

Registration forms can be found online at www.epiphanyws.org or in the narthex. Contact Emily Phillips with questions.

Mickey will be out of the office July 23 through August 7. Her dogs' names are Eskimo (Mo) and Igloo (Iggy) if that helps you figure out where she's going.

My hometown, Rainelle, WV, was destroyed by the recent WV floods in June. My family is safe but their church and some church members have lost everything. They are cleaning up slowly and trying to get some normal back to their small town. The need is great. I am organizing a collection drive to help out. I have listed below what is needed as of now. If you can help, I would greatly appreciate it. I will be taking a trailer of goods to WV on July 30. Please drop off your new/unused items in the fellowship hall. Your kindness is greatly appreciated.

Love & Peace,
Brenda Bronk
