Fourth Sunday After Epiphany

Your presence is requested for our Annual Meeting of the Congregation today after worship. We will have potluck prior to the Call to Order and child care will be provided. This is your opportunity to gain information about the key missions and actions of Epiphany. We hope you will attend.

Help! We need people to sign up for LSM meals for our Wake Forest students. There is a list posted outside Pr. Doug's door. If you have any questions, contact Ann Shideler.

Great News! Leadership School for Mission and Renewal will be streamed to Epiphany, Thursday evenings, Feb. 9 - April 6, 6:30 to 8:00 in the Campus Ministry/Youth Room. Cost is $90 with scholarships available. Sign-up sheet and brochure are on the glass table between the sanctuary doors. Contact Pastor Doug or Kay Conrad for more information.

Encounter: Faith Together

We are going to try the Potluck Breakfast again on Sunday, February 5 at 8:45am for Encounter: Faith Together. Please bring a breakfast dish to share that morning, no signups needed.

Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service

We continue to pray for refugees around the world and for those who help, including Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service, settling 500,000 refugees, migrants, and unaccompanied children and women since 1939. Epiphany has worked with LIRS to settle several refugee families. Learn more about their work at www.lirs.org.

Threads of Love will meet next Sunday after worship.

Join us next Sunday, Feb. 5, at 10am in the sanctuary to take the US Congregational

Life Survey, part of our intentional interim process to help us understand our identity and focus. The survey will take about twenty minutes and the service will be shortened to accommodate the time. All worshipers fifteen and over, including visitors, will take the survey to provide a "snapshot" of our worshipping community. Results will be collated by the USCLS organization and compared with 5,000 other congregations' results. We'll have a forum about helpful learnings when results are available.

THANKS At last week's "Day to Remember" forum, we filled in a timeline in the fellowship hall, listing events and stories important to the life of the congregation. We'll leave it up a few weeks, so feel free to add an event or story you think we missed.
