The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany
Winston-Salem, North Carolina

March 12, 2017 Second Sunday of Lent

We give thanks today for the Epiphany-led outreach ministry to Ibraham Elementary School and for those who have made contributions of time, money, and vision to the backpack program and food pantry. Special thanks to Joyce Kohfeldt who gathered money from business donors to provide weekend meals for fifty-two children at Ibraham and got Epiphany members on board to attend training with Second Harvest Food Bank leading to providing eighty bags of food delivered each week. Joyce next saw the need for a food pantry at Ibraham. Principal Lee Koch provided space which now houses a commercial refrigerator and freezer, filled with food from local grocery stores, which, with fresh produce, staples, and even Thanksgiving dinners, is distributed to Ibraham families in need. Recently, a major gift from Joyce allowed the establishment of the "Joyce Kohfeldt Endowment Fund for Outreach", which will support the backpack program and food pantry for many years to come.
