Third Sunday After Epiphany

Join us today after worship for a potluck and our annual meeting. 2017 annual meeting reports are available on the square table in the fellowship hall. Financial reports and 2018 budget proposals are also available.

Fellowship: Sunday, Feb 4, 2018 – Helping Others and Potluck

Souper Bowl of Caring is an excellent opportunity for fellowship, great food (potluck), and to help our youth collect money for Second Harvest Food Bank in Winston-Salem.

Since 1990, young people have been leading the charge and inspiring others to help feed the hungry before the Big Game. We will collect your donations before and after the service on February 4th and 100% of the money will go directly to Second Harvest Food Bank. If you prefer to write a check, please make it out to Epiphany and indicate "Souper Bowl" in the memo section.

Invite a friend and come join us immediately after the church service for a potluck! Bring your favorite soup, chili or other favorite Super Bowl food and your friendly smile and wear your favorite team colors. Remember that your friend sitting beside you at church may have forgotten to bring a dish, so make a large dish of food and invite them too. You don't even have to be a football fan.

If you are interested in helping with fellowship opportunities or have suggestions, please call Jeanie Saphar.

EVERYONE IS INVITED TO PIG OUT ON PANCAKES!

Lent is just around the corner, which means so is the annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper sponsored by our Youth! This year's event will be held on Tuesday evening, February 13 from 5:30-7:00pm. This is a Youth fundraising event at which we will collect a love offering to help offset the cost of this summer's National Youth Gathering Event, as well as other Youth activities. Please let us know how many members of your family and/or friends plan to attend, so we can be sure to purchase enough food for the event.

For your convenience, a sign-up sheet has been placed on the white-board in the narthex. You can also call Mickey in the church office or email Charlotte, youthandfamily@epiphanyws.org to let us know you will be joining us.
