Fourth Sunday After Epiphany

Please sign up to provide meals for Campus Ministry. The sign-up sheet is in the fellowship hall. The students really enjoy the home cooking. If you have questions, call Ann Shideler.

Fellowship: Sunday, February 4, 2018 Helping Others and Potluck

Souper Bowl of Caring is an excellent opportunity for fellowship, great food (potluck), and to help our youth collect money for Second Harvest Food Bank in Winston-Salem.

Since 1990, young people have been leading the charge and inspiring others to help feed the hungry before the Big Game. We will collect your donations before and after the service on February 4th and 100% of the money will go directly to Second Harvest Food Bank. If you prefer to write a check, please make it out to Epiphany and indicate "Souper Bowl" in the memo section.

Invite a friend and come join us immediately after the church service for a potluck! Bring your favorite soup, chili or other favorite Super Bowl food and your friendly smile and wear your favorite team colors. Remember that your friend sitting beside you at church may have forgotten to bring a dish, so make a large dish of food and invite them too. You don't even have to be a football fan.

If you are interested in helping with fellowship opportunities or have suggestions, please call Jeanie Saphar.

EVERYONE IS INVITED TO PIG OUT ON PANCAKES!

Lent is just around the corner, which means so is the annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper sponsored by our Youth! This year's event will be held on Tuesday evening, February 13 from 5:30-7:00pm. Please let us know how many members of your family and/or friends plan to attend, so we can be sure to purchase enough food for the event.

For your convenience, a sign-up sheet has been placed on the white-board in the narthex. You can also call Mickey in the church office or email Charlotte, youthandfamily@epiphanyws.org to let us know you will be joining us.

The NC Synod is offering the third of its four online leadership courses starting next week. "Faith and Finances" will be available at no cost! Please contact Marc Shideler for information.
