News About Nora

The next Nora trip is planned for Tuesday, November 6th. I can pick up things at your location or at the church. Let me know if you leave things in the fellowship hall or the choir room, so I'll be sure to get them.

The Christmas Party for the children will be Friday, December 14th. I will deliver the unwrapped toys, new socks, and underwear on Tuesday, December 4th.

Last year the number of children swelled to over 800! Mary White and her little band of volunteers work tirelessly filling individual grocery bags for each child. Our generous and loving Epiphany family filled my car to the top, and there are offers from others willing to help transport if needed. The collection corner in the fellowship hall (near the outside exit door) will be set up early in November.

I cannot thank you adequately for all you do for the folks in this remote area. Their gratitude and love for Epiphany is expressed to me each time I go, and I wish you could hear the squeals of delight and see the happy faces of these precious children when Santa delivers their gifts from you!

Peace and love,
Kathleen Tucker

Third quarter contribution statements have been mailed. Please check your statement carefully and report any errors to Mickey. Now is the time to make sure your giving is on track for 2018.

The sign-up sheets for 2019 altar flowers and sanctuary lights is on the podium in the narthex. Sign up now for your favorite dates.

Take a look in the kitchen after worship this morning and see if any of the dishes on the back counter are yours. These orphans need a home!

Be sure to join us at 8:45 next Sunday for an Encounter:Faith Veterans Day observance. Everyone is invited to honor and remember those who have served our country.
