Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Pastor Russell is out today. We welcome our guest preacher, the Rev. Katherine Shaner.

News About Nora

The Christmas Party for the children will be Friday, December 14th. I will deliver the unwrapped toys, new socks, and underwear on Tuesday, December 4th.

Last year the number of children swelled to over 800! Mary White and her little band of volunteers work tirelessly filling individual grocery bags for each child. Our generous and loving Epiphany family filled my car to the top, and there are offers from others willing to help transport if needed. The collection corner is in the fellowship hall (near the outside exit door.)

I cannot thank you adequately for all you do for the folks in this remote area. Their gratitude and love for Epiphany is expressed to me each time I go, and I wish you could hear the squeals of delight and see the happy faces of these precious children when Santa delivers their gifts from you!

Peace and love,
Kathleen Tucker
